

Film “Metro-Polystress” 90 Minutes, Full HD 1920x1080p, MP4 and DCP digital

Megacities have a big challenge of dealing with overpopulation and stress. This changes the life of the people, their behavior and daily life. This film shows some consequences and by elements of exaggeration (fast motion, animation and more) make the problems even more visible. The film-concept is set up, first examples are recorded but the project will not start before 2021.

We will keep you updated.
